

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 1. 1714.

From the Hague Courant, dated Oct. 3.

Stettin, September 22.

BY a Yacht arrived here from Sweden we have Advices from Norway, which say, that the Enemy being well provided with Cannon and Ammunition, seem to intend to undertake some notable Expedition, for which they daily expect Orders. 'Tis said that some Russian Troops will be shipped at Archangel and carried to Denmark and Norway; but what Force they are of, or what Service they will be put upon, is kept secret. On the other hand, some Letters also mentioned, that a great Quantity of Arms are arrived at Christiana, where with the Boors are to be arm'd; and that the regular Militia consists of 6000 Horse and Foot, whereof 5000 are assembled and lye ready to enter the Province of Bahus if there be Occasion.

Wismar, Sept. 24. The Swedish Counsellor and Field Marshal Syllenskierna is already arrived in Schonen to Muster the Troops there, who are much increased by those that have been sent to them from Sweden, and to put all things in order to oppose the Danes if they should again attempt any thing against that Province.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 2.

Brussels, Sept. 27. Our Regency sent to the Hague two Days ago Passports for the Lords-Deputies of their High Mightinesses the States-General, who are to come to Antwerp to regulate with Count Coningseck, the Imperial Minister, the Barrier. That Lord is daily treated by Persons of Quality, and 'tis said he has received Orders from his Imperial Majesty to demand the Advice of the principal Cities of these Provinces upon the Subject of the Commerce with England and Holland.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 2.

Hague, Sept. 30. M. Vander Dussen, the Count de Rechteren, with Messires Gossinga and Geldermassen, Deputies of the States-General for regulating the Barrier with Count Coningseck, are set forward this Morning on their Journey to Antwerp. M. de Klingraef, the Hanoverian Minister of King George, was Yesterday in Conference with the Council of State; and M. Sande, Minister of Mecklenburg, was also in Conference with some Lords of the Regency. The Duke d' Ossuna and the Marquis de Monteleon, Ambassadors from Spain, will return in a few Days to Utrecht. 'Tis not yet known when the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace and Commerce concluded between this State and Spain will be exchanged.

From the Scots Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Edinburgh, Sept. 22. The Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, which sat last Week, has drawn up a loyal Address to King George, to be presented to him upon his Arrival, and have appointed five of their Number to go to London to present it, viz. London, October 1.

The two Mails due from France arrived last Night.

From the Gazette a la Main, dated Oct. 3.

The Letters from Gironne of the 13th and 17th do not tell us yet the Particulars of the general Assault upon Barcelona on the 11th; they mention only that the Besiegers lost 800 Men killed or wounded, among whom was no General-Officer but the Sieur Villemenu, Collonel of the Regiment of Orleans; the Sieurs Gondelet and Talleyvau, Collonels, wounded. 'Tis said that Villapol and Bassier, Chiefs of the Barceloners, were wounded and taken. Other Letters from Gironne of the 18th give these further Particulars, viz. That in the general Assault the Marshal of Berwick having distributed the proper Officers in the Right and Left commanded himself in the Centre; and the Signal being given by the firing of 12 Cannon and Mortars our Army marched immediately, and after some Resistance carried the Bastion of the New Port where there were three Retrenchments; afterwards the Bastion of St. Peter was gained, where there were 170 Men, who were all killed; the Besieged then fled to the Monastery of St. Augustin, where a great many of them were killed. They could not spring their Mines because they were filled with Water during the late Rains, as were ours also. 100 Dragoons on foot with the Grenadiers mounted the Breach in the East Bastion, where there were 200 Men, who fired 12 Pieces of Cannon charged with Cartridges which killed a abundance of our Men, but they were at last put to the Sword. In the mean time the Enemies rallied and retook the Bastion of St. Peter, because we had not the Precaution to secure the Monastery, which was taken and retaken eleven times that Day. In fine, the Battle lasted till half an Hour past four in the Afternoon, at which time the Enemy retired. The next Morning we entered the Fort Montjoy by Capitulation, where there were 800 Men. On the 13th at 7 in the Morning the Keys of the City were brought to us, and three Days after the Inhabitants were disarmed. This Assault cost the French more than 2000 Men.

From the Gazette a la Main, dated Oct. 6.

They write from Toulon, Sept. 20. that on the 18th a Vessel arrived there from Barcelona whence she parted on the 13th in the Morning, and brought Advice, that the Old City was carried by Assault on the 11th after a Battle of 8 Hours, wherein the Besieged repulsed the Besiegers three Times with great Vigour; but at last were obliged to retire into the New City, where they had lodged all their Effects. They have demanded in the Capitulation their Lives and Jewels, whereof the Women it seems had many and of great Value. When the French Soldiers on the 12th went into the Town, they found the Shops open and the Artisans at work with the usual Tranquillity.

All the Letters from Germany mention that there has been a Fight between the Swedish and Muscovite Fleets, wherein after a severe Battle the latter were obliged to retire, having lost 6 or 7 Ships burnt or sunk, and as many taken; And that afterwards Admiral Warrang was gone to post himself before the Island of Aland, where the Muscovites had landed a Body of Troops, who will now be forced to surrender to their Enemies.
